For variable rate loans, any extra repayments you've made since your last scheduled repayment can't be redrawn until after your next scheduled repayment is made.

For fixed rate loans, redraw is only available for excess funds paid into the loan during the current fixed rate period up to the value of the prepayment threshold. Amounts prepaid in excess of the prepayment threshold are not permitted to be redrawn. This is the case even though your statement may show these amounts as advance repayments. Additionally, any extra repayments you've made since your last scheduled repayment can't be redrawn until after your next scheduled repayment is made.

Redraw is not available for Super Fund and Senior Access Home Loans. This form is not used for Portfolio Loans.
