

First Home Owners Grant Application Guide: Queensland

Filling out forms can be tricky, so we've put together a guide to help you complete your First Home Owners Grant (FHOG) application.

The FHOG application consists of three parts:

- Lodgement guide (pages 1-6)

 This contains important information about the grant, your obligations after receiving it and a glossary of terms and meanings.
- Application form (pages 7-12)
 You'll be required to fill out this section. We've provided some Q&As to help you.
- Supporting document checklist (pages 13-15)

 This is a comprehensive list of the supporting documents needed for your application.

Part 1. Lodgement guide

Section 1 - Eligibility criteria.

This section determines whether you meet the eligibility requirements to apply for the grant. You'll be asked questions such as your Australian citizenship or residency status, if you've owned residential properties in the past, or if you've entered into a contract to purchase or build a new home.

Tip: Correction fluid, or liquid paper, cannot be used on this form. To make an amendment, simply strike out the error, add the correct information, and have this initialled by all people involved in the application.

Ensure all questions are answered and captured legibly.

Part 2. Application form

Section 2 & 3 - Applicant and spouse details.

In this section you'll be asked to provide details such as your name, date of birth, residential and postal address and indicate whether you have a spouse. If you have a spouse, you'll also need to provide their details.

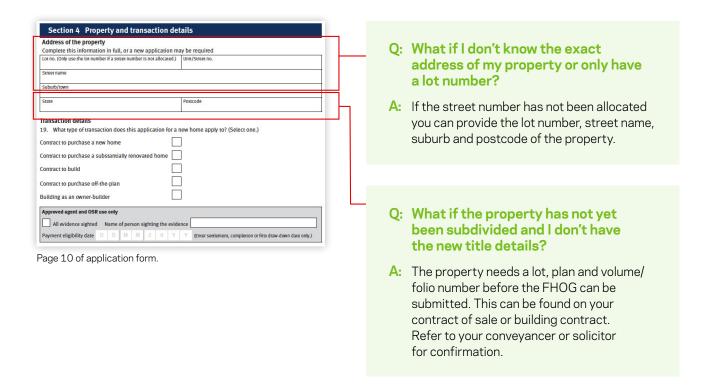

Q: What name should I use on the application? A: Your First, Middle and Family name used on your application must be the same name that appears on your loan application and your identification documents. Tip: There should be no variations of your name between your identity documents, building/sale contract or loan application. If variations exist, forward all supporting documents with this application to our FHOG team and we'll help resolve this with your Home Finance Manager or Broker. Tip: You'll need to provide additional supporting evidence if you've declared a previous or alternate name (this includes any previous married names OR if you are now married, your birth name must be included here). Please refer to the 'Supporting Documentation' section of the application for a complete list of acceptable identification documents. Tip: Ensure your email address is legibly captured.

- Q: What do I provide if I've received a guarantee or financial help directly or indirectly such as a 'gifted amount' to assist with the deposit, partial purchase or purchase of the FHOG property related to this transaction?
- A: The applicant must provide a statutory declaration detailing financial help or a documented financial arrangement, declaring the following information below:
 - Name of person/s providing financial help.
 - Gifted amount and/or guarantee amount.
 - That there's no obligation to return the gifted amount back to person/s giving it.
 - Address of the property specific to the FHOG transaction.
 - That the person/s providing financial help will have no interest in the property.
 - That the person/s providing financial help will not benefit from the purchase.
- Q: What is a vendor's statement and when might I need to provide it?
- A: A vendor's statement is a letter from the vendor advising that the property has never been previously occupied or sold as a place of residence.

If you're purchasing a new home (including off-the-plan and substantially renovated homes) you'll need to provide this. Please refer to the 'Supporting Documentation' section of the application to see if this applies to you.

- Q: What should I consider when providing my building contract or contract of sale?
- A: Contracts must be signed and dated by all parties e.g. all buyers and vendors (builder or developer). The date of the contract must be prior to the date of the FHOG application. Any variation to the original contract must be included, signed and dated by all parties, as above.
