

Selling online could help increase your sales.

Online trading, or e-commerce, has grown enormously in recent times as customers have come to trust the financial security of trading over the internet. In fact, the online shopping industry is now worth hundreds of billions of dollars.

Online trading can increase your sales, broaden your market base and help you streamline your sale processes. If you have a product or service that you would like to sell on the internet, our Online Payment Solutions could be perfect.* Accessed via the St.George Internet Payment Gateway or a Solutions Partners Gateway, they provide you with the ability to securely process credit card transactions online and in real time, helping you improve your cash flow through faster processing of payments.

- An easy way to take your business online.

Our Hosted Payment Page allows you to easily add credit card processing capabilities to your website without having to purchase expensive software solutions and with little or no web development knowledge. St.George hosts the payment page for you and provides security for you and your customers.

- Total development control of your payments.

Our Application Program Interface allows you to process financial transactions online and gives you total control of its features and design. Ideal for large volumes of online payments.

- Direct management of your payment solution.

The Merchant Administration Consol (MAC) enables you to review transaction reports or manage your Hosted Payment Page and its contents, and can also be used to process transactions such as mail and telephone orders.

- Take the stress out of high volume transactions.

Our Batch Application solution is ideal for streamlining large volumes of routine or periodic transactions, such as memberships or subscriptions, saving you time and money.

- Certified e-commerce partnerships.

If you need a more tailored online payment solution, you can work with one of our certified Solution Partners. We will work with your chosen partner to find the ideal e-commerce solution for you.
